As a part of the cultural event, the students of class III

The program started with the lighting of lamp by the Principal accompanied by the Head Mistress. The prayer song - Sarawasti vandana was followed by welcome address by the Head Mistress. Thereafter the students took over the stage and charmed the audience with an invocation dance followed by an inspirational song.

The students also showcased their talent of acting in the comic skits taken from the stories of "The Disciples of Paramananda". The skits kept the audience enthralled. Almost everyone sitting in the audience had a hearty laugh watching the skits.

The vivacious dancers set the floor on fire with folk and western dances with their energetic performances. The fun filled extravaganza offered everyone present there an opportunity to carry home wonderful memories for years to come.
